Inverness, from Friar's Shott. A good view of the town of Inverness may be had from this point of vantage. One of the four bridges across the Ness is seen, and rising on high ground on the opposite bank the solid buildings of the (modern) Castle. Of an earlier fortress on the same ground King Duncan said:

"This Castle hath a pleasant seat; the air
Nimbly and sweetly recommends itself
Unto our gentle senses."

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)
